DISCOVER DAUFUSKIE ISLAND

March 31, 2010

Wednesday

We will leave Ashley Landing Mall at 6:30 AM and drive to Hilton Head Island to Salty Faire Village where we will board our boat for the trip over to Daufuskie Island. Surrounded by the waters of Calibogue Sound, the Cooper and New Rivers—Daufuskie lies roughly a mile from Hilton Head Island. There is no bridge to Daufuskie and the island is just a short boat ride away. Step back in time with us as we travel to an island that time has slowed down for. The isolation of the islands that dot the coast have preserved a unique culture known as “Gullah”. This is the island where local author Pat Conroy taught school in the 1960’s and the island became the subject of his book “The Water is Wide” (Made into the movie “Conrack”). Daufuskie Island represents a life style in the Coastal South that is slowly dying, but the traditions of Daufuskie lives on with its native inhabitants (bin yahs) and new comers (come y’ahs). Come and experience Daufuskie Island with a “binyah” – local Gullah Guide, Sallie Ann Robinson. Upon arrival at Daufuskie our “bus” and Sallie Ann Robinson who was born and raised on Daufuskie will meet us and was one of the students taught by Pat Conroy. Sallie Ann will share with you what it was like to grow up on Daufuskie along with some of the Gullah folk beliefs and herbal remedies. Sallie is the author of 2 cookbooks, “Gullah Home Cooking, the Daufuskie Way” and “Cooking the Gullah Way, Morning, Noon and Night”. After our bus tour we will enjoy lunch on Daufuskie Island. After lunch we board our boat for the return trip to Hilton Head Island with memories of life in the past. Here we will board our coach for the return trip to Charleston. We should arrive in Charleston around 5:30 PM.
