DAY ONE – SATURDAY – JULY 24, 2010

We will depart Ashley Landing Mall this morning at 7:15 AM with a pick up in Summerville at 7:30 AM. Our journey today begins with a visit to the Billy Graham Library in Charlotte, NC. Now, only a few miles from where his family's dairy farm once stood, the Library will take you back to his humble beginnings and chronicle his transformation from a farm boy to an international ambassador of God's love. After lunch, on your own, you will have time to explore the Library and view the all-new 32-foot mural painted by Thomas Kinkadee, on your own before we depart for Greensboro, NC for a one-night stay. After checking into our hotel and freshening up we will depart for The Barn Dinner Theatre. Conceived in the early 60's, the Barn Dinner Theatre was the 2nd location of what was eventually a chain of 27 during its heyday. The shows were cast in New York, then the cast would travel from one Barn to the next performing each show as far as Texas and New Mexico. As the decades went by many of the locations were closed or sold off. Today this location in Greensboro is the only remaining property in the original chain and is the oldest continually operating theater in America. We will enjoy a scrumptious buffet dinner before enjoying a production of "Harry & Larry's Christmas in July". Harry & Larry are back in comedic action in this summer knee-slapper! Join the bungling duo as Larry tries to help Harry understand that summer sales really aren't a second Christmas, throw in a trailer park manager running moonshine and you're sure to laugh all the way home! ". After the show we will return to our hotel. (DINNER SHOW INCLUDED TODAY)

DAY TWO – SUNDAY – JULY 25, 2010

This morning prior to check out enjoy a deluxe continental breakfast at the hotel. Regretfully we must make our way home today but we have one more stop to make – Mooresville, NC. Here we will enjoy a luncheon sightseeing cruise on the “Catawba Queen” as we cruise around beautiful Lake Norman.
