The downtown area has a new look with facilities for conventions, sporting events, theaters and entertainment. These complexes, connected by plazas, parks, waterways and bridges form an inviting and compact downtown section. While a Western atmosphere has been preserved, Tucson has emerged as a cosmopolitan city. Old Tucson, erected in 1939, is a replica of the 1880's Tucson. More than 350 films, TV episodes, series and commercials have been filmed here. Our hotel is located in an area of good restaurants so you can enjoy dinner on your own close to the hotel. (Breakfast included today)

Have breakfast in the hotel before we begin a very exciting day. We will leave for the Grand Canyon for a two-night stay. The giant monoliths take on shades from bright red to pale sand and seem to change color with each passing cloud or ray of sunshine. So prominent are the buttes and pinnacles that locals have given them names such as Bell Rock, Cathedral Rock, Chimney Rock, Coffeepot Rock, Courthouse Butte and Snoopy Rock. Formations in the shape of a castle and a Merry-go-round can also be spotted. Upon arrival at Grand Canyon we will check in and let you have the afternoon and evening for exploring this wonderful place. (Breakfast included today)
